

TEAM BUILDING SAILING DAY

WHY SAILING IS THE PERFECT TEAM ACTIVITY

In today's time sensitive, performance driven climate a company day out needs to be measurable and justifiable.

Whether you are looking to incentivise your staff, get your team working to their optimum performance, reward your key players or retain your best clients; sailing is the ideal corporate activity to achieve your desired outcome in a memorable way.

Sailing is unique as you don't just watch the action you are part of it. A day on water creates a natural team bonding environment as you have to work together, communicate and co-ordinate your actions to get the yacht moving forward!

Absolutely no sailing experience is needed to join one of our sailing days as we provide professional crew to show you the ropes and make sure you get the best out of your day.

Fantastic for networking, building team relationships or simply getting to know your colleagues or clients better!

PERFECTLY LOCATED

Port Hamble is an excellent location for your sailing day or event. Our base in Port Hamble Marina is in the heart of the beautiful riverside village with a selection of boutique shops, restaurants and pubs all within a short walk.

The Banana Wharf waterside café is a perfect place to start your day with crews able to meet their skippers whilst enjoying breakfast overlooking the yachts.

Once on board the yachts, your guests will receive a safety briefing before navigating out of the Hamble River which is just a short sail to the main sailing area known as the Solent, therefore maximising time spent in action!

1 hour from London Waterloo

15 minutes from Southampton Airport Parkway

5 minutes from J8 off M27 with free parking in the marina

PROFESSIONALLY RUN TEAMBUILDING DAYS

Britannia have been organising teambuilding sailing days for 18 years, and during this time we have welcomed clients from small companies looking for a whole company day, or large multi-national companies looking for a departmental day out.

We pride ourselves on attention to detail, ensuring your day runs perfectly with minimal effort from your organiser.

Our professional skippers and first mates are hand-picked for their easy-going nature, professionalism and ability to bring the best out of your team.

They will ensure everyone is involved in the day regardless of their role back in the office, coaching your group to become a high-performing team in just a few hours.
